

One-Week Classes

For our Growing Artists, Ages 8-10

9:00 am - 3:00 pm (dates listed below) Fee: $180.00 per week (unless otherwise indicated)

THEMED CREATIVE DRAMATICS: Participants develop the basics of acting and storytelling through themed exercises, improv and theater games. Each week uses a different theme or focus, allowing participants to choose more than one week of study.

Mummies & Pyramids May 30-June 2 (4 days) Fee: $144.00

Explore ancient Egypt and discover what lies hidden in the great pyramids, as well as in your imagination.

Fractured Fairy Tales June 5-9

Everyone loves the classic fairy tales of Mother Goose and Grimm. But what if the tales change? Cut and paste your favorite characters into different stories and discover the new tales that are waiting to be told.

Monster Mash June 12-16

What kind of mayhem can we create when Dracula, Frankenstein and the Blob meet a family of zombies? Come have a bash and be part of the Monster Mash.

Jazz Funk / Hip-Hop June 19-23

Students learn street dance, a combination of urban hip-hop and jazz dance. Through hard work and fun, students develop self-confidence and presentation skills. Dance attire required.

Instructor: Tanya Behling

Discover Disney June 26-30

Using well-known Disney favorites, this class introduces students to the art of musical theater performance. Participants will have an opportunity to portray the characters they know and love from Disney classics.

Instructor: Roseann Bogaars

Shipwrecked July 3-7 (4 days) Fee: $144.00

What would you do if you were stranded on a deserted isle? How would you survive? Would you ever be rescued? It's truly up to you as you write the script for this unusual adventure tale!

To Infinity & Beyond July 10-14

Imagine yourself with the freedom and the power of Buzz Lightyear ... Where in the universe would you go? Would you discover that there is a man in the moon? Would you be able to jump rope on the rings of Saturn or be swept away by a giant storm on Jupiter? It's up to you when you join this spaced-out class!

Elementary Choir Clinic July 17-21

A special opportunity to spend a superb week singing with fellow students. This fun clinic is open to those who wish to hone their skills or explore ensemble work. Students rotate through a variety of musical experiences throughout the day, including choir rehearsal, Orff/recorder consort and theory/musicianship class.

Lead Choral Director: Roseann Bogaars
