What You Need to Know:

Load-in: Enter from Ft. Harrison & Cleveland. Load-in from 2pm to 4:30pm. All vehicles must be off the festival streets by 4:30pm. When loading in, drop off your supplies, and then MOVE YOUR VEHICLE before setting up your space. You may stay parked on Cleveland Street only long enough to load or unload. Parking is available in the City Hall lot and the Library lot. All parking regulations apply.

Showtime is 5:00pm to approximately 10pm.

Tables, chairs, flat beds, hand trucks, ladders and tents will NOT be provided.

Electricity is limited, and available on a first come, first served basis. PLEASE, NO INCANDESCENT LIGHTING. Lighting should be via compact florescent bulbs or LED. Your available power will be via a single 20 amp service outlet. Continual tripping of breakers will result in your being disconnected.

Please come prepared with your own supplies. We encourage you to use a tent. Please do not hang or tape banners or signage to any city property. If you need additional trash cans for your product, you must supply your own. City receptacles cannot be dedicated to your booth.

Please remember this is a family oriented event. No pornography, illegal paraphernalia, or fireworks will be permitted. We reserve the right to deny any requests for space that include questionable items. We may remove any item determined to be inappropriate the night of the event.

Load-out is immediately following the event at approximately 10pm. No vehicles can enter the event area until cleared by REH Security. Do not bring your vehicle onto Cleveland Street until you are ready to load. All tents and product must be removed from the property by 11pm.

Applications are NOT approved until countersigned and returned by a Ruth Eckerd Hall representative.

Your signature below confirms that you have read and understand the vendor rules and regulations. You also agree to indemnify and hold harmless Ruth Eckerd Hall, its representatives, committees, sponsors, and volunteers from personal liability, damages, and claims, suffered or incurred during these events.
